Dear Richard:-

Your letter of yesterday promptly to hand this morning and contents noted. And am sorry little May has been so sick, and you certainly have my deepest sympathy. It would be a source of great pleasure to me to know she was well. I have never seen movie for sale, you bot, and paid for it, and I have never known what it cost. Your house is being lothed, ready for plaster in a short time. Linthicum seems to be doing his best now, and I think they will have it completed in a short time now. Old Wise is back and wants a room. But says you are too high on them. Expect you would make by renting for a little less. I told Wise not to rent until you come down which, he agreed to do, I understand. A Building and Loan association has been organized here and have bot, all the land on the East-side of Alston Avenue and will build 100 houses soon I also learn they are trying to buy the place I've been writing you about. If you think best to buy it I would advise immediate action or the place will be gone, or a big advance in price, I believe it will double in value in twelve months, I came near telegraphing you this morning about it, Tilly agreed to give me 10 or 12 days to consider whether we would take it or not, the time is out, I would have bot it the day I saw him but had no money, Well it seems like a poor man has no right to live in this world no way, as they can never do any thing any way, Let me hear from you by return mail if not sooner,

Yours T. D. Wright
